Early A.M. "Fire" Baffles Laddies

Want to win friends and influence people? Our heroine of the week, who prefers to remain nameless, does it the hard way.

Awake at three a.m. Friday, her glance was drawn to the roof of her neighbor's house, where lives Mrs. Viola Phillips and her two children. What appeared to be a heavy cloud of white smoke was billowing forth into the night air around a vent in the roof as from a fireplace, except the house has no fireplace.

Mrs. Phillips was awakened, and a thorough search for a blaze brought no results, but still the "smoke" persisted. Mrs. Phillips turned out the furnace, while our heroine put in a call to the town's intrepid fire chief for advice. Almost within the time it took to turn away from the telephone, the truck was on the scene, and volunteer firemen began to appear as though by magic.

By this time, there was still no fire, and now no "smoke." Upon orders of the fire chief to turn the furnace on again, the strange atmospheric phenomena started all over again.

Unusual as the circumstances are in California, this condition of condensation of warmed moisture as it strikes the cold air, such as "seeing your breath," is not uncommon in colder climates. And it can happen here.

This particular story is written to bring a smile. But behind it is a moral. It was right to question "smoke," because a fire on a frosty night could do considerable damage in a closely settled area. And our embarrassed heroine will be forever grateful to a department of fire-fighting volunteers who answer their call to duty with such promptness and equanimity at 3 a.m.!

This and That—Here and There

NEW OVEN

A. C. Van Blom, who operates the Royal Dutch bakery, has reported the purchase this week of a new bake oven. He feels that the business warrants the use of the larger, more adequate piece of equipment.

AUXILIARY MEETS

The auxiliary to Cypress Post No. 9847 of the VFW will hold a business meeting Monday evening, February 5, in the club rooms.

The organization recently voted to hold two business meetings each month.

FRESH PAINT

Carl Reisig and Merle Jennings have improved the appearance of their Richfield station by applying a coat of white paint to the building's interior.

M & H LOOKS BIGGER

When the M & H market remodeled its store building last August, the partition which separates the meat department from the rest of the store space was left "as is" until a later date. That time came this week when the wall was removed, and an attractive display rack put in the space.

Since the meat department was purchased in November, 1947, it has been partially hidden from

WORK PROGRESSING ON FAMILY'S HOME

The three men who were asked to serve on a citizen's welfare committee to administer funds collected for the Neal Spratte family left at the Cypress hardware store, have all consented to act in a temporary capacity.

A slight error was made in last week's report when the paper stated that James Broadbelt appointed the committee. The three suggested were Rev. W. D. Howard, chairman and Dick Hathcock to represent the chamber and "Happy" Kreissler the VFW.

The family, whose house was burned to the ground recently, is purchasing a new lot. Two houses, which will be joined together, were moved from Long Beach Wednesday and will be made habitable within a few days. A well digging crew's efforts will provide domestic water for the family of nine.

Get New Triplex Underway Here On Dyer Corner

Necessary permits were procured this week by Mrs. Mabelle Dyer to build a triplex on her property at the corner of Watson and Camp setreets.

This will increase to nine the number of rental units on her property.

The new building will be two-story, with a garage for each apartment underneath. It was necessary to gain permission of the Orange county planning commission, Orange county building inspectors and state inspectors. Work was started on Tuesday by W. Davidson, builder, immediately following official approval.

JUNIOR WOMEN PLAN DINNER FOR HUSBANDS

When members of the Junior Women's club get together for a social meeting on Friday evening, February 10, they will include their husbands. Plans call for a Chinese dinner at the Chungking cafe in Anaheim.

Later the group will assemble at one of the member's homes for an evening of games and entertainment.

Personals

The county planning commission last week approved application for permit from Peter G. Bouma for a 150-cow dairy on 23 acres of land at Orangethorpe and Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Moss, of Phoenix, Arizona, brought their young nephew, Mike Moss, back to the parental James Moss home last weekend. The men are brothers.

Litle Susan Beason, three and a half-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Beason, was severely bitten on the face and body last week by a neighbor's dog. Seven stitches were necessary to close the wounds and the little girl has been given a number of anti-rabies shots.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Cardin are receiving the congratulations of their friends this week. It was reported that an oil well on property they own near Cushing, Oklahoma, has come in, with a good "spread."

School Calls for Bids

John Farnell Badly Burned In Shop Fire

Latest word from John Farnell, a patient at Seaside hospital in Long Beach, is that he is recovering as well as can be expected from second and third degree burns suffered last Friday afternoon. According to information received from his daughter, Mrs. Vic Konig, his condition is not critical.

Farnell, a boat builder, was working in a small workshop on his property on La Salle street. While grinding metal on a power driven stone, it was felt that sparks must have ignited the sawdust on the floor, causing the blaze. Farnell attempted to put out the fire, then called the Cypress volunteer fire department when he failed. The building was not destroyed completely.

When the burns became too painful, about two hours after the accident, he managed to drive his car to Long Beach, accompanied by his grandson, Wayde Martin.

C OF C COMMENCES DRIVE FOR MEMBERS

February starts a new year for members to pay their dues into the Cypress chamber of commerce. The by-laws state that dues in the amount of two dollars are payable January 1 and members become delinquent in February.

Memberships are not limited to business people in the community. Any resident of the area is eligible to become a member.

D. L. von Trotha, newly elected secretary, has revealed that the following are members for the fiscal year to date: John Crume, Dale Kroesen, Beth Kroesen, Mrs. Emily Fernandez, Jesse E. Smith, G. E. Rust, Jack Cawley, C. R. Rogers, Frank Noe, James W. Moss, Foster Noe, J. Widmann, Philip McLaughlin, Dan Mackay, Elmer Corby '.Johnnie" Johnson, James Broadbelt, Richard Hathcock, Mrs. Winfield, Forrest Lowrey, "Happy" Kreissler, Leona Murdock, Edward Behrens, A. E. Arnold, Mrs. A. E. Arnold, Earl Essex, Mr. Earl Essex, E. E. Goodman, Mrs. E. E. Goodman, D. L. von Trotha, Mrs. D. L. von Trotha, and Madge Lyen.

Any interested Cypress resident is invited to join the Chamber of Commerce. Meetings are held in the schoolhouse the second and fourth Mondays of the month.

MORE WOMEN JOIN BUSY BEE'S CLUB AT SPECIAL MEET

Mrs. Frank Buzzo, 5532 Danny avenue, entertained members and their guests of the Busy Bee's club at her home Tuesday evening. With 25 in attendance, a new high was established for the group.

New members present were Mrs. James Morgan, Mrs. John De Polter, Mrs. W. J. McCoid, Mrs. Al Wilson, Mrs. John Stoddard, Mrs. Olive Williams, Mrs. "Toddy" Phillips, and Mrs. Maxine Williams.

During the business meeting nominations for new officers were made. Members will vote at the next meeting.

The hostess served chocolate chip oatmeal cookies and coffee before the group adjourned.

Final detail plans were approved January 27 for two new units of four rooms each to be added in the Cypress elementary school system. Approval came from the state division of architecture.

Dan T. Mackay, board of trustee secretary, says that work will begin approximately one week after the bids are let. Approximately 180 days will be required to build the building, or about six months. The classrooms should be ready for use about September 1, since bids will be opened at the schoolhouse the evening of February 17, and if reasonable, they will be decided at that time.

Latest Lighting

Plans call for the latest development in schoolroom lighting. A new type window to permit light from the south eliminates the expense of copper louvres. Windows placed underneath the arcade give plenty of light but eliminate glare. They are easily reached to open and close. The bottom of the window is above the height of a child. Full length windows on the north will be the same as those in the last classrooms built.

Arcades Important

In planning for the arcades connecting the units in the school system, a careful check was made on present buildings and those which it is planned to build in the future. Shelter is provided as a connecting link to every point.

Significant addition in one of the new buildings is the inclusion of a men's lounge and women's lounge. The so-called "teacher's room," across from the school office, has served as a rest room for the women teachers and older girls, first aid and Red Cross station, and infirmary for students who become ill at school, to mention only a few of its uses.

Harold C. Wildman, Long Beach, has been the same architect retained by the school since 1935. His firm has charge of the new court house in Santa Ana for Orange county.

Speaker at Local Dinner Suggests 23rd Amendment to Constitution

Federal competition with private business can be checked by means of a 23rd amendment to the Constitution, Willis Stone, president of the American Progress Foundation, Tuesday night told more than 250 members and guests of the Associated Chambers of Commerce at Knott's Berry Farm.

Reciting many examples of what he termed usurpation of power by bureaucrats, Stone said 86 Federal corporations absorb one-third of the revenue from Federal taxation and comprise 25 per cent of the total Federal budget.

The growth of such tax free, rent free and cost free government agencies began in 1917, he said, when seizure of the railroads, taking over of Muscle Shoals, etc. started a trend of "socialistic opposition" to private business.

P-T.A. PRESENTS SPECIAL SPEAKER THURSDAY NIGHT

A speaker of unusual merit is scheduled for Thursday night's meeting of the P-T.A. in the school auditorium. Mrs. Joyce Jacoubowsky, of Long Beach, will relate her impressions at United Nation's meetings which she was privileged to attend, according to the program chairman, Mrs. L. M. Brannan.

Special observance will be given "Founder's day" with children in the third and fourth grades presenting the program for the school's part.

Second grade mothers will be in charge of refreshments during the social hour.

P-T.A. Sets Time For Variety Show In 90's Style

An opportunity is being given again this year for townspeople to volunteer to join the cast of the P-T.A. sponsored "Gay 90's Revue." Dates for the entertainment have been set for Thursday and Friday, March 2 and 3, in the school auditorium.

A preliminary meeting of the committee in charge was held Wednesday morning in the home of Mrs. John Luken, P-T.A. president. In addition to a mirth-provoking "mellerdrammer," a variety of olio numbers is being arranged.

In order to get as many as possible to participate, a chorus will be included in the show, to consist of strictly amateur talent. Call Anaheim 60574 and volunteer.

The P-T.A. will use the proceeds of this year's effort to purchase playground equipment for the town's "small fry."

THE COW STORY UP-TO-DATE

It doesn't make any difference whether you are a Republican, a Democrat or an Independent, the following article from the Bernice, La., News-Journal is good for all to read who wish to see our American system of representative government survive.

Capitalism: If you have two cows, you sell one and buy a bull.

Socialism: If you have two cows, you give one of them to your neighbor.

Communism: If you have two cows, you give them to the government and the government gives you milk.

Fascism: If you have two cows, you keep the cows and give the milk to the government.

New Deal: If you have two cows, you shoot one, milk the other, then pour the milk down the drain.

Fair Deal: If you have two cows, you let them starve so you can buy your milk in cans, thus making business better.

I RISE TO REMARK
by John Phillips

The second session of the 81st Congress has started off with a speed which is unusual. It is the reverse of the slow start of a year ago. Matters, interesting to the District, which we would have expected committees to act on by February, or March, or even April, are now being discussed and acted upon. Congress is always a three ringed circus, in that everything seems to be going on at once, but this year you'll have to expect several acts in each ring at the same time and govern yourselves accordingly.

I have an increasing doubt if the administration actually wants the issues which are referred to as the "Truman program." This is an election year, and if these were settled before November, they could not be campaign issues.

This was apparent in the recent argument over the proposed change in the rule. It was interesting in the obvious intent to deceive the people. The change was widely publicized as having been opposed to prevent the passage of the FEPC bill.

Curb on Power

In the days of "Uncle Joe" Cannon, the Speaker of the House had an arbitrary, and often dictatorial power. If he wanted a bill out, it came out, and if he wanted it bottled up, it didn't come on the floor. A group of young progressives fought this situation, and forced the change which gave the Rules Committee the powers it had, up to a year ago, to act as a traffic policeman for legislation.

In January 1949, it was proposed to change this and return to the old method, under which the speaker had greater personal powers. A committee chairman could file a petition, and after 21 days could move to bring it up for vote. The Speaker could decide which member to recognize. This was hailed as "progress." I wrote you at the time that it wasn't progress but a backwards steps, and that it would cause confusion.

It did. And the situation was such that the Rules Committee could actually be by-passed.

It was proposed to rescind this rule change of a year ago. It should be rescinded. I impress upon you the fact that this rule, changed or unchanged, has no direct relation to the FEPC bill, nor any other bill. There have always been ways, and still are ways, to bring bills to the Floor, IF THE MAJORITY PARTY REALLY WANTS THEM OUT.

Moves to Suspend

First, every Wednesday is "Calendar Wednesday." On that day, chairmen of committees, in alphabetical order, can bring up bills, without reference to the Rules Committee. Yet every week the majority leader moves "to suspend Calendar Wednesday."

Second, every first and third Monday we may have suspension of the rules. With the approval of the majority leadership, a motion may be made to suspend a rule and bring up a bill. It gets 40 minutes of debate and requires a two-thirds vote.

Third, every second and fourth Monday, we have the Discharge Calendar. A petition may be put on the desk, for any bill, in any committee, including the Rules Committee, and having been signed by 218 members, it may come up on the Floor. If there aren't 218 members to sign, there probably aren't 218 members to vote out a bill, on a 21 day rule, or any other.

Finally, in all my experience, I have never known a time when, if the majority leadership sincerely wanted a bill out of the Rules Committee, that it would not be brought out. The Rules Committee has 11 members, seven MAJORITY, and four minority. All this current talk about the change in the rule is just propaganda.

COUNTY COMMENT

By GEORGE E. HART,

Orange County Press Bureau

After any freeze in the citrus districts comes the problem of shipping frozen fruit—and how much.

That problem now is here. That is why the Farm Bureau citrus committee called a meeting for Thursday of this week to quiz a representative of Anson Brook, state director of agriculture, regarding the prospect for securing tighter rein on shipments of frozen oranges.

There is disquiet in some quarters at the prospect of marketing more frozen oranges than the law allows, to use a familiar phrase. Not that anyone looks for a violation of the law, such as mixing frozen fruit with undamaged fruit to make up a shipment that would still keep under the legal tolerance of frost damage.

But there is dissatisfaction in some quarters, and these, incidentally, include official quarters, with the tolerance set up for orange shipments. The dissatisfaction deals also with the method provided for ascertaining the frozen content of an orange. The method is one center cut of the fruit, and many feel that such does not give a true measure of damage. One who feels that way is Dixson W. Tubbs, county agricultural commissioner, whose job is enforcement of the law regulating shipments of frozen fruit.

This law permits shipment of oranges, 15 per cent of which has frost damage up to 20 per cent, as determined by a center cut of the fruit. Tubbs, among others, points out that the orange may be frozen from the top as much as 30 per cent, but a center cut would not discover more than 20 per cent affected. Fifteen per cent of the shipment might show no more than 20 per cent damage, center cut, but the other 85 per cent also might have an undiscovered damage of 10 to 15 per cent. End cutting is favored by Tubbs.

Sentiment of the Farm Bureau, chiefly, it is said, favors tighter restrictions, possibly reducing the tolerance for oranges from 15 per cent of the shipment to 10 per cent having frost damage up to 20 per cent. The tolerance for lemons has been reduced to 10 per cent. It was cut five per cent, then raised to 10. Grapefruit tolerance is 20 per cent damage, as with oranges, but the damage can be determined by cutting any part of the fruit

The tolerance issue, of course, centers on oranges, particularly the valencia orange crop of Orange county, because the interior navel districts are said to have been in position to weather the cold in better shape.

There are many growers, no doubt, whose fruit was all damaged up to 20 per cent or more, who would like to see shipments manipulated so that all of their 20-per cent fruit could be marketed, by being mixed with undamaged fruit to the extent that a shipment could be made up that would show only 15 per cent damaged.

The grower whose fruit escaped the freeze, either by reason of fortunate frostless location or because he spent his good money protecting his crop, naturally would object to shipping manipulations, even if the law permitted such practice. This grower would expect a good price for his fruit, unless it had to carry the neighbor's frozen fruit on its back. Mingling their fruit would bring the grower of frozen fruit as much as the grower who protected his crop. And both would receive a lower price than the good fruit would have brought alone. A lower price, not only this year but next year, too, because the buyer of damaged fruit becomes wary, and the reputation of Orange county oranges would suffer.

you get twice as much economy when they're both electric!

Electric ranges and water heaters are current-misers. They guard against waste of electricity. But that's not the only saving you get.

When you cook electrically, you do away with cooking failures, and you get less shrinkage—so you save on food. Your cleaning costs are lower, too—because electric heat is so clean.

With an electric water heater, too, you get additional money savings. A lower cost for installation because an electric water heater can be installed anywhere—and a lower replacement cost, because electric water heaters last longer.

For better results with less work, let accurate electric controls do your watching for you. They never forget. Electric ranges and water heaters are completely automatic—and they're both as safe and dependable as electric lights.

MISSIONARY SHOWS RELIGIOUS FILM SUNDAY EVENING

At the Sunday evening service in the First Baptist church of Cypress, the Rev. George King, missionary, will show an educational scriptural picture at 7:30 o'clock. He will also teach the book "Church," using the Sunday school all next week at a meeting each night, except Saturday, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, in the church at Watson and Camp streets.

The local pastor, the Rev. W. V. Buckner, urges all who are interested to attend these sessions, regardless of church affiliation.

Plans are being made by members of all Baptist churches to join in a church-wide rally to begin early in April.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Goodman visited her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Spencer, 847 W. 16th St., Gardena, last Saturday. Following dinner at the Chungking Inn in Los Angeles, they returned to the Spencer home where the evening was spent reminiscing.

Dear Editor:

It is heard in Cypress that the teen-agers are delinquent. When the teen-agers have attempted means of recreation, they are always given the same story, "Wait 'til the park is finished." The teen-agers feel that they will be six feet underground before the park is finished. We are tired of waiting for the park.

We, the teen-agers, think we should have a recreation center where we can meet and blow off the excess steam the people of Cypress call delinquency. We, ourselves, don't see why in a town as prosperous as Cypress the people can't do something about the delay.

Would the people of Cypress be willing to participate in a drive for funds to help the teen-canteen movement?

PRE-NUPTIAL SHOWER HELD FOR GLORIA MANCEBO-E. ARBISO

Mrs. Jack Groff and her daughter, Miss Nancy Groff, entertained at a pre-nuptial shower for Miss Gloria Mancebo and Edward Arbiso, whose wedding will be held in the near future.

Bingo was the entertainment of the evening with various kitchen gadgets being the prizes. At the close of the game, the prizes were given to the honored couple.

Instead of household articles, the guests brought gifts of money which the honorees may use as they choose.

Attending the delightful party were the mothers of the couple, Mrs. Anthony Mancebo and Mrs. Philip Arbiso; Mrs. Anthony Mancebo Jr. and children; Mrs. Paul De Connick, Mrs. Josephine Lourenco, Misses Georgette Williams, Joyce and Janet Fujino and Betty Lantz, Messrs. Richard and Philip Arbiso and John Andre, all of Buena Park; Miss Delores Cardin and Frank Ferreira of Cypress; Mrs. Marie Craverio and daughter, Barbara of Whittier; Frank Batista of Santa Ana; Miss Vanda Costa; Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Lawrence of El Monte; Mr. and Mrs. John Borges of Artesia; Raymond Precie of Norwalk; Mrs. Laura Bagley of Norwalk. Miss Barbara Elliott was unable to be present.

RED CROSS MAKES REQUEST FOR DRIVERS AND STAFF HELPERS

A plea for volunteer staff assistants and motor corps drivers for the Northern Orange County chapter has been issued by Mrs. Fred Gorman, Volunteer Services chairman, for the chapter.

"With the clerical work of keeping up records for the bloodmoblie centers and preparation for the 1950 fund campaign," she explained, "many typists and clerks as well as motor corps drivers are needed at the chapter headquarters at this time." She added that newcomers to the community as well as older residents would be welcomed as volunteer helpers.

"While the work requires accuracy and neatness, volunteers need not be fast nor expert. In fact, it is an opportunity to acquire business experience and make new acquaintances," Mrs. Gorman asserted.

Agricultural Commissioner Tubbs is officially neutral in the matter of fixing a damage tolerance.

"I am not in position to criticize the present law," he says, "because it is my duty to enforce it. And that is exactly what I shall do, whatever the law may be.

"But personally I cannot help feeling that the situation last year with respect to the market has been a reflection of unsuitable fruit shipped—frozen or bad-tasting fruit that broke the camel's back, so to speak. Better fruit would have meant several million dollars more income to the county.

"I would look with interest on any move to adopt tighter tolerance regulations. But until the law is changed, I will enforce it as it is."

SUGGEST EXTENSION OF SILVERADO CANYON ROAD THRU TEMESCAL

Construction of a road from Silverado canyon across the Santa Ana mountains, to connect with the Corona-Elsinore highway in Temescal canyon, was urged upon the county supervisors Tuesday by a delegation of Silverado residents. Traffic advantages and fire safety for the community tucked away on a dead-end road in the hills, were arguments advanced by the proponents.

A through highway to Temescal canyon from Silverado would extend a distance between 10 and 12 miles ,it is estimated.

Mr. Bouse was sick so he did not attend the meeting and the scouts did not get their tenderfoot pins. Two new Boy Scouts were added to the troop. Both of the boys are re-registers from last year. Scout Patrol Leaders Meet For Planning

By Joe Cram

Friday, Jan. 20, the Cypress Boy Scouts met at the VFW hall.

The scoutmaster selected three new patrols. The names of the patrols are: Beavers, Flaming Arrow, and the Crows. The patrol leaders are Walter Bueck, Mickey Gowyd and Joe Cram. There are five in Mickey Gowyd's and five in Joe Cram's patrol. Walter Bueck has four in his patrol.

These following boys are to receive tenderfoot pins: Harvey Green, Bobby Lukens, Jimmy Coffman, Robert Mata, Ernest Mata, Ray Decker, David Fender, Bobby Fitch, Billy Kelliker and Joe Cram.

There are two senior patrol leaders. Their names are Buddy Chambers and Ronald Garrison. A special meeting for the patrol leaders was held at the scoutmaster's house. Ronald Garrison and Mickey Gowyd were not able to come. But Walter Bueck, Buddy Chambers and Joe Cram were at the meeting. Mr. Troutman's son was there, too. Bob Troutman was elected quartermaster. His job will be to keep the food at camp in his headquarters. Joe Cram was appointed chaplain. The patrol leaders discussed what they were going to do at the next meeting. They decided that they would play some games, collect the dues, pledge allegiance to the flag and have some contests. If there is any time left, the scouts would discuss plans for their next trip.

GIRL SCOUTS SELL COOKIES ON FRIDAY TO START CAMPAIGN

Ivey Giles, 6-A

Girl Scouts of Cypress Troop 14, sixth grade, have just finished the "cook badge." There were many interesting things to do to earn the badge. The most interesting elective was the exhibit, to which each girl contributed a sample of her favorite dessert recipe. The Girl Scout cookie sale is starting February 3. The cookies will be 35 cents a box or three boxes for one dollar. Help the Girl Scouts by buying cookies when the girls come around.

Two Local Men ORC Members

Contact with reserve officers residing in Cypress is being sought this week by the 6684th Station Training complement of the Organized Reserve corps with headquarters in Santa Ana as the army unit to which Orange county reserves belong.

Col. Raymond E. Smith, commanding officer of the unit said today that two Cypress officers are affiliated with the unit and he hoped that contact could be renewed with them as well as with other officers residing in the community.

The two local officers are Lt. Ernest Mitchell of 8864 Cypress avenue, and Lt. Samuel S. Rosen of 9372 Walker street.

Col. Smith suggested that such officers contact Lt. Col. John B. Doyle of 152 Via Undine, Newport Beach, or the unit headquarters in Santa Ana in order to retain and advance their position in the ORC, obtain retirement credits and reserve training pay.

The unit instructor, who maintains the Santa Ana headquarters at 1012 N. Main St., is Maj. Robert G. Davey, whose phone number is KImberly 2-9676.

'Chit-Chat from The Teeners'

By Gloria McKinzie

A party was held at 4952 E. Bishop, the home of Betty Murphy. Those present at the party were Peggy Flynn, Lolly Slaybaugh, Shirlee Boudreau, Kay Kelliker, Beverly Cook, Marian Simmons, Rosemary Johnson, Delores Coelho, Joe Mello, Ralph Mason, Vance Newkirk, Warner Gedney, Kaker Van Dyke, Robert Van Dyke, Chuck Bell, Johnny Wright, Russell Noe, Tommy Cook, Lewie Stevens, and Duane Duncan. The refreshments served were coke and sandwiches. A very good time was had by all.

Could it be that M. S. likes someone with the initials T. C.?

It's said that all the Lo-teeners had a good time Friday night. Except for a few that wanted the Hi-teeners to come in. Those who want the Hi-teeners in so bad, why don't you get some sponsors together for it?

If some of you girls are wondering who is the new addition to the drug store and to A.U.H.S. is, well, it's Elton Howe! He was transferred here from Excelsior high.

Who is this girl that is just wild over Lewie Stevens?

If all boys were woman haters like N. C., T. T., Y. T., H. D., and E. M. where would the girls of Cypress be?

A cousin of Del Moeckly's, Richard Moeckly and his wife, spent a week with Mr. and Mrs. Moeckly in their home at 1122 West 160 street recently. In what little time he had to entertain away from the Western Auto store, Del managed a trip to San Diego and Tijuana and one to Chinatown for his guests.

Lura Coffman, who recently underwent an emergency appendectomy in the Park hospital in Long Beach, has been allowed to return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kelly, who moved to Texas several months ago, have returned to Cypress and will stay here permanently if they can find a place to live.

view. Genial "Dick" Hathcock describes the improvement as "letting the butchers out of the dungeon."

PLAY CARDS?

Commander Kreissler of the VFW calls to report that he took his partner to a terrific beating at canasta last Saturday evening by a couple of "artists", namely Anderson and Mrs. Fernandez. The party didn't enjoy too large an attendance, undoubtedly because of the rain and bad weather.

Kreissler says it is hoped that larger crowds will attend, and the organization would like to see some of the local townspeople there. The public is cordially invited, and there's another card party this Saturday night at the VFW hall, corner of Miller road and Lincoln.

EAT CAKE

It wasn't a big birthday party—just the family was there. Mr. and Mrs. John Crume entertained her father, Peter Widmer, on the occasion of his ? birthday, and presented him with a white cake complete with pink rosebuds and the inscription, "Happy birthday Dad." All frosting, of course.

WHERE'S MONEY?

When M. R. Gregg looked in the cash drawer on a recent Wednesday afternoon at the spot where the 10's, 20's and checks are usually kept, he turned to Mrs. Gregg inquiringly, asking where she had put them. The two own and operate Gregg's Super market, 5941 Lincoln Ave.

A customer had held Mrs. Gregg's attention just a moment before as he changed his mind about a small purchase for which he had given a dollar and pretended to look for correct change. A partner had taken advantage of the arranged "set-up" and looted the till, to the tune of some $131. It was disocvered later that the pair had left a car, with the motor running, on Miller road, and was able to gain a quick get-away before their act was discovered.

DIMES MARCH

Cypress residents are informed that they can now participate in the March of Dimes drive right at home. In addition to the miniature facsimile of an irong lung at the schoolhouse, containers to hold contributions have been placed in the M & H market and Cypress hardware. Polio could strike here! We can help be prepared. No one misses a dime!

SUPERVISORS TO INVESTIGATE WIND MACHINES

The County Board of Supervisors this week authorized the County Agriculture department to proceed with an investigation of wind machines as a possible substitute for orchard heaters.

Supervisor Ralph McFadden of the Buena Park-Fullerton district was pessimistic, being of the opinion that both types would be needed.

No. 1 Merchant Bowling Team Slips From Second to Third

By managing only two wins and two losses in their match with Bee's Duck Inn this week, the keglers from the Cypress Merchant No. 1 outfit slipped one place in the Tuesday Handicap league standings this week at the Buena Park Bowl.

The Buena Park Lion's club is now in second place.

Salty Falls rolled a high single game of 196 for the No. 2 group, and Tommy Neer hit a 505 series, but that wasn't enough in the match with the league-leading White Elephant cafe of Buena Park. Even though the locals lost the first round by only two pins, and the third by 15, the final count was four losses to no wins.

Triangle Wins One

Sparked by Captain Dotty O'Neal, the Triangle drive-in took one game from the White Elephant in the Women's Handicap on Wednesday. Claire Hitt followed Dotty's 177 with a 163, and Alma Rader hit a 143.

Another Win For Cypress Cage Team

A 53 to 37 victory over the Hornets of Anaheim by the Cypress Merchant cage team was the highlight of local sports this week.

Paced by forward Hal Lillie who racked up 21 points, and Bob Hoyt with 16, the Cypress team had to come from behind in the second half to win the contest.

At the half, the score stood 21 to 20 in favor of the Hornets, after the local men had cut the lead down from 14 to 10 at the end of the first quarter.

The score was knotted at 23-all at the beginning of the fourth stanza, then the local club cut loose. They outscored the Hornets 30 to 14 in that quarter, with the resulting 53-37 win.

Other scoring for the Merchants were Linker and Wright, six points, and Boeckler, four.
